

George D. Little, MSC & CT, C.C.P.S.
(Secretary Bexar County D.A.R.E. Board of Directors)

George D. Little has 39-years of diverse law enforcement experience, in which he has worked a myriad of assignments working literally in every aspect of law enforcement. He holds an Associate of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Central Texas College, a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education Criminology/Sociology from Wayland Baptist College and Associates of Science in Criminal Justice, a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice & Criminology and Masters degree (Pending) in Criminology and Human Services and Counter-Terrorism from the University of the State of New York. In addition George received his Basic, Intermediate, Advanced and Masters (Peace Officer) Law Enforcement certifications from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards in Education. He is a certified TCLEOSE Instructor. He is a retired U.S. Army Military Police (ABN) First Sergeant/E-8 who served his country from Vietnam through Desert Storm for 20-years of honorable service. He is a former Drill Sergeant and Master Instructor; experienced criminal investigator and operations sergeant and INTEL specialist for the Joint Counter-Drug Element (JCOE) for the U.S. Army. Upon retiring from military service George served and subsequently retired from the Bexar County Sheriff's Office San Antonio, Texas where he was a Deputy Sheriff, School Resource Officer and the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) Coordinator for Bexar County. He is a certified D.A.R.E. Instructor and D.A.R.E. Mentor Training Instructor by D.A.R.E. America. George has over 20 years working in a school district environment and has trained D.A.R.E. Officers Internationally as a Mentor Instructor. He is an experienced Physical Security and Crime Prevention specialist with expertise in Force Protection, and Counter-Terrorism, in addition to being an experienced Criminal Investigator. George has authored and co-authored numerous articles on Counter Terrorism and has served as a college adjunct professor teaching criminal justice and counter-terrorism undergraduate courses. George has authored, researched and developed numerous state-of-the art, scientific and researched-based, "Best Practices" crime prevention, school-based law enforcement and law enforcement curriculums and has a passion for teaching. George is the former Director of Institute for Criminal Justice Studies (ICJS) – Texas State University. He is current the Deputy Chief for INTEL, Homeland Security and Training for the Bexar County Constable Office, PCT#4. He was the 2004 National D.A.R.E. Officer-Of-The-Year, and has received Numerous U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration Awards and recognitions; recipient of the Federal Bureau of Investigation - Directors Community Leadership Award; and American Society for Industrial Security – Business Crime Council Award. George is an appointed member of the U.S. Department of Justice – National Institute of Justice Technical Working Group for School Safety. He is a member in good standing with the International Chiefs of Police Association (ICPA); National Sheriff's Association; Federal Criminal Investigators Association (Life-time member); International Narcotic Enforcement Officers Association; International Counter-Terrorism Officers Association where he serves as the State Coordinator; the Texas Sheriff's Association; Texas Crime Prevention Association (Certified Crime Prevention Specialist); and Life Member of the Texas D.A.R.E. Officers Association. George has received Appointments as an Honorary "Tennessee Colonel" and Honorary "Kentucky Colonel", as well as having served as a page in the House of Representatives. George D. Little is a Master Mason and member of Texas 8 Lodge; member of VFW Post 4815 and current Disabled American Veteran.